CHAMPION COWBOYS FOR RODEO

PORTERVILLE — Professional cowboys, seeking the gold and glory that goes with championship performances, will be in Porterville June 19 and 20 to participate in the sport of rodeo that has been developed from the chores of the old-time cowboy in his daily work on the western ranges.

This 23rd annual Porterville rodeo, sponsored by the Porterville Jaycees, is slated for the Rocky Hill arena, east of town, with grand entry at 8 p.m. both nights.

A $2,000 purse, plus entry fees, will be the magnet for professional cowboys; entries close at 2 P.M., on Wednesday, June 17 for the RCA-approved show.

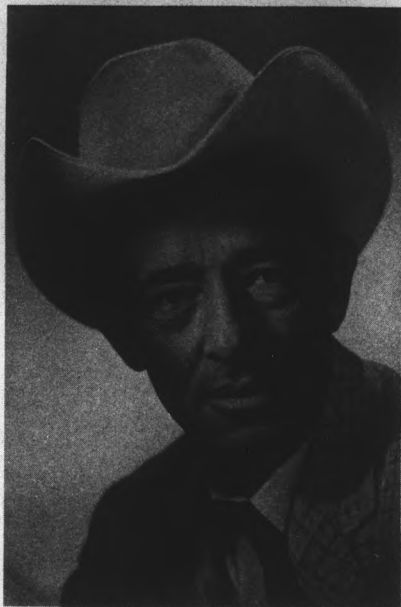

Events will include saddle and bareback bronc riding, calf roping, team roping, steer wrestling, bull riding and women's barrel racing.

As a special arena feature the Porterville Canterbelles and Brent Gill will present "The Now Generation." A rapidly-rising, young arena star, John Wilson, will appear as clown and bull fighter.

Six girls are competing for queen of the 1970 Porterville rodeo: Cheri Clem, Diane

Voice Of Rodeo

GEORGE PRESCOTT, of Olympia, Washington, will be the man behind the mike at the 23rd annual Porterville rodeo, set for the evenings of June 19 and 20 at the Rocky Hill arena. Prescott has announced many major rodeos in the west and also assists in management and promotion of rodeos. In addition, he is an active competitor in team roping, even though he lost a leg while serving aboard a destroyer at Pearl Harbor.

GREAT TWO-DAY AIR SHOW AND FLY-IN SLATED

PORTERVILLE — One of the greatest two-day aviation shows in California this year will be held at the Porterville Municipal airport, Saturday and Sunday, June 20 and 21. It will be the Porterville Area Pilots Association's 21st Annual Moonlight Fly-In.

The activity annually draws several hundred "Fly-In" pilots and thousands of "drive-in" spectators from all over the western states to see big displays of all types of aircraft, top aerobatic shows, flying contests, and other activities.

Included in the event for 1970, are the annual barbecue beef dinner, a moonlight dance on the airport apron, a special breakfast, and pilot proficiency contests with many trophies to be won, plus one of the greatest aerobatic shows ever put together by the Porterville Area Pilots when they present Art Scholl and Skip Volk in dual aerobatic acts to include the almost impossible back-to-back loop.

Gerald Massey of Delano, will put his tiny experimental bi-plane "Li'l Toot" through its

Porterville College To Graduate 159 Students; Ceremony Tomorrow

PORTERVILLE — Porterville college will award Associate in Arts degrees to 159 graduates, with 70 participating in the ceremony that will be held tomorrow, Friday, on the college campus, starting at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

Addressing the graduates will be Dr. Philip S. Wilder Jr., Dean of the College, California State College, Bakersfield. He will be introduced by Orlin Shires, president of Porterville college; his subject will be "The View From The Hills."

Invocation and benediction will be spoken by the Rev. Luke Fritz, of the St. Andrews Presbyterian church, Strathmore; a welcome will be extended by Duane Davenport, sophomore class president; speaking also will be Patrick Shires, associate student body president; outstanding scholars will be introduced by Paul Kercher, vice president of Porterville college; remarks will be given by Gilbert Bishop, assistant to the district superintendent; degrees will be presented by Edward B. Cornell, member of the college district board of trustees.

The College chorale will sing, under direction of Dean Semple, with Betty Deaton as accompanist; processional and recessional will be played by the College band, directed by Buck Shaffer; the graduating class will be presented by Orlin Shires.

HOSPITAL APPRECIATION WEEK

PORTERVILLE MERCHANTS and administrative officials of the city of Porterville are this week observing annual Porterville State Hospital Appreciation week, with an official proclamation presented to Dr. James Shelton, medical director at the hospital, by City Councilman Aubrey M. Lumley at a Greater Porterville Merchants' committee luncheon

Monday. Dr. Shelton recounted incidents going back to June 3, 1953, when first contingent of 140 patients was received at the not-yet completed hospital, then stated that the institution now has 1,500 employees, a budget of $14,000,000 annually, most of it in payroll, and some 2,500 patients, that will be reduced to around 2,000 by the end of the year, "a more manageable number." Lumley pointed out that the hospital has given the community "economic stability," but that just as important is the part that hospital personnel has played in progressive development of the community and its organizations. In photo, from left Howard Smith, merchant chairman; Harland Ohde, hospital administrative assistant; Dr. Shelton; Lumley; and Ben Webb, Porterville chamber president.

OPEN HOUSE AT HOSPITAL

Open house tours of the Porterville State Hospital will be given for the general public on Saturday, June 13, between 1:30 p.m. and 4:30 p.m., beginning at the hospital's Camp Vandalia, with shuttle busses moving between the camp and the hospital.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT TRESPASSING SUBJECT OF SPRINGVILLE MEETING

SPRINGVILLE — Rights of property owners in protecting themselves against trespassers will be the subject of a SAIL committee meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, June 16, at the Springville Memorial building, starting at 8 p.m.

Dick Coon, president of the Springville chamber of commerce, says that Sheriff Bob Wiley and a representative of the district attorney's office will attend to discuss legal aspects of trespassing and property rights.

Ranchers and residents of the foothill area are having increasing difficulty with trespassers along the Tule river and in the hills, with many instances of heavy littering and actual property damage reported.

"We want to find out just what citizens can do about the situation," Coon said in announcing the meeting, to which all interested persons are invited.

You Can Protect Your Livestock

PORTERVILLE — Farmers who are suffering losses to geese, sheep, and other livestock, from marauding dogs, have a legal right to protect this type of property by eliminating the dogs that are doing the killing.

Under a county ordinance, farmers have the legal right to shoot dogs that are killing or molesting livestock - and the owner of the dog is liable for damage done by the dog.

And under county ordinance, it is illegal for dogs to be allowed to roam during the night hours.

Enforcement of county - and city of Porterville - ordinance involving control and licensing of dogs is handled, under contract, by the Tulare County Humane Society.

FINK HEADS QUARTER HORSE SHOW COMMITTEE

PORTERVILLE — Glen Fink has been elected chairman of the Porterville Fair Quarter Horse committee; vice chairman is Larry Southard; secretary is Arleen Hudson.

The committee staged the highly successful Porterville Fair Quarter Horse show in May, and is planning for the 1971 show that will be held in connection with next year's fair.

BAND LEAVES TOMORROW NIGHT

The Fabulous Studio band will leave tomorrow, Friday night, for a 21-day cross-country tour, with appearances at military installations, and in Washington, D.C. The band will board a chartered Greyhound bus at the Porterville High School music room about 10 p.m.; director is Buck Shaffer.

HONOR BAND AWARD GOES TO TOM BRODERSEN

PORTERVILLE — Tom Brodersen became the twentieth recipient of the Bartlett Honor Band award, that was established in 1951 by the late Wayne Kemper and his wife, Eva, of Wayne's Music Mart, at annual awards assembly held Friday morning at Bartlett Junior high.

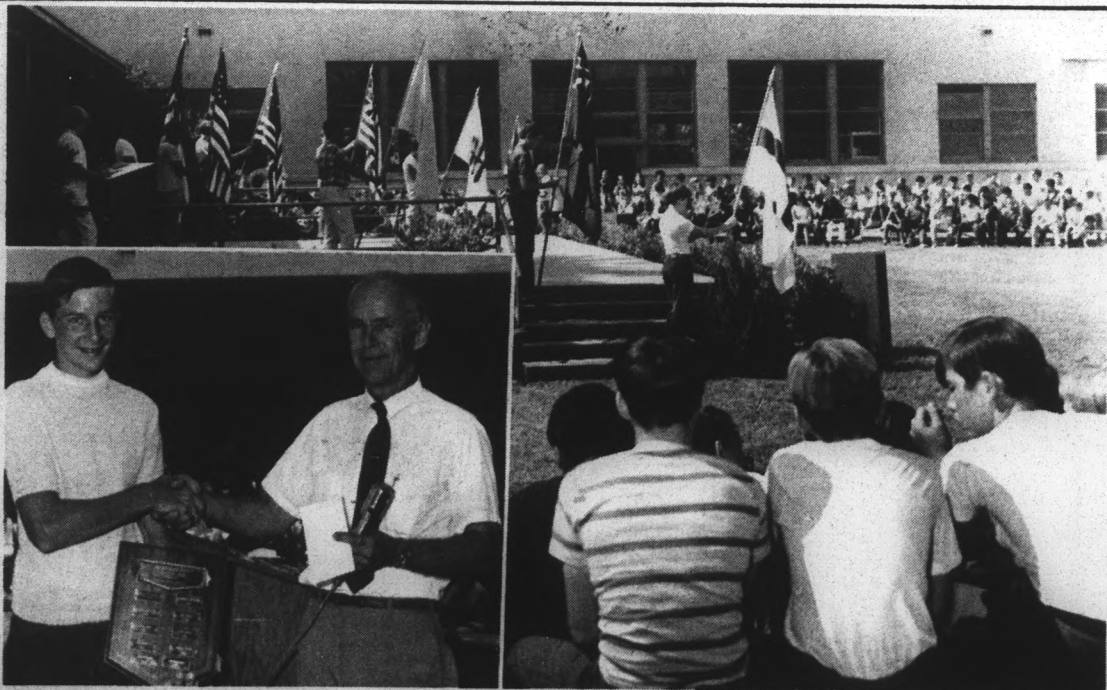

The presentation was made by Jerry Kuhlmann, band director, who states that the award winner is selected on a basis of personal contribution to the band by setting an example of dedication, industriousness, attitude, moral character, and good musicianship.

First winner of the award - back in 1951 - was Reynold Rutledge, now band director at Pioneer Junior high and other schools; he was also one of the first winners of the Porterville High School Panther band's Frank Howard award.

GET OUT THE CRYING TOWEL

It used to be that football coaches were the principal exponents of the crying towel technique, but in recent times, they have been pushed back into the category of rank amateurs, as politicians, school officials, and the prophets of doom and destruction scream calamity from tear-drenched eyes. (How do you like that simile?)

Out with the crying towels at the moment are, from top to bottom or vice versa: Our elected officials in Washington, who have substituted the crying towel for what we country folks used to call political guts, and our elected officials in Sacramento, ditto.

At the county capitol, supervisors are wrassling with a tentative budget that exceeds last year's budget (naturally) and right out of the crying towel comes the awful truth that it is the state and the federal government, with their munificent welfare programs, that are the root of all tax evils. (But we've been listening to that story for about 20 years, and all that seems to have happened is that more and more crying towels are needed.)

And down in the city capitol building, councilmen are attempting to set up a city budget that would look great if the income and expenditure columns could be reversed. The sad situation is that more needs to be done than there is money to do it, yet in the proposed city budget is a $60,000 item for a community center welfare building. (Pass the crying towel, please.)

And schools! You should see the press releases we are getting from the various levels of the school hierarchy: State, (where it would seem that the teachers and the PTA might be a bit miffed about Proposition No. 8;) the county level, from which we learn that "school districts are in real danger;" and the local level, ditto.

Then listen to the ballyhoo coming from innumerable sources about the calamities of mankind and the sins of the horrible establishment, and it should be obvious that even the crying towel isn't adequate. We're all going to be dead anyway.

So, we've had enough of the crying. We say there come periods of economic belt-tightening; periods of appraisal, when public officials, from local to federal level, take a look at things with the attitude, "Is this and this and this really necessary; are these programs and these expenditures really getting the job done; are these great projects actually essential, or are they primarily part of the great American system of boondoggling?"

Then we the people have to get into the act and say, "OK, this is a settling down time; this is a time when we take care of essentials only; this is a time when we sort of re-group, and get ready to jump again."

And, of course, this can be done without damage to the basic education system, and without damage to the system of caring for the humanitarian needs of the unfortunate. Essentially, we just stop gilding the lily for awhile.

Now that we've settled these problems, we have a final shot - to the state legislature, and to the national congress, to wit and herewith: In this system of intertwined and overlapping government, in which each lower level of public administration is dependent to a more or less degree on a higher level, you boys at the state and federal level, after taking care of raising your own salaries, might well get off your fat duffs and take care of your legislative responsibilities that relate to lower levels of public administration, like maybe deciding what you're going to do about school financing, then doing it - for better or worse - so that school administrators can set up their plans. We suggest pronto action.

But, because we've watched and participated in operations of the body politic for lo, these many years, we know that the real answer is not words of wisdom. It's the crying towel.

The Tumult And The Shouting

The tumult and the shouting of the primary election has turned to quiet - except for shouting about the foul-up of mechanical devices designed to eliminate foul-ups and slow-downs in compiling election returns - but the tumult and the shouting is already underway in anticipation of the general election in November.

At the local level, Incumbent Fifth District Supervisor Ray Muller is being opposed by a newcomer in politics, Bill White; in the north end of the county, Incumbent Fourth District Supervisor Fred Batkin is opposed by George Olson.

Incumbent Assemblyman Gordon Duffy, a Republican who represents Kings and Tulare counties, is opposed by Tilford Cheney, a Democrat.

Incumbent Congressman Bob Mathias, Republican representing Kern and Tulare counties, is opposed by Milton Spartacus Miller, Democrat.

Incumbent United States Senator George Murphy, a Republican, is opposed by John V. Tunney, a Democrat.

At the state level it will be Incumbent Ronald Reagan, Republican governor, vs Jesse Unruh;

Incumbent Ed. Reinecke, Republican lieutenant governor, vs Alfred Alquist, Democrat;

Incumbent Ivy Baker Priest, Republican treasurer, vs Milton Gordon, Democrat;

Incumbent Houston I. Flournoy, Republican controller, vs Ronald Brooks Cameron, Democrat.

In the race for secretary of state it will be Republican James Flournoy vs Democrat Edmund G. Brown Jr.

And for attorney general, it will be Republican Evette J. Younger vs Democrat Charles O'Brien.

For the non-partisan job of state superintendent of public instruction, it will be Incumbent Max Rafferty vs Wilson C. Riles.

CALIFORNIA SPEAKS

JOHN FORSYTHE, Hollywood film, TV actor—"Young people nowadays are the best thing happening, but they lack a sense of humor."

EVETTE J. YOUNGER, L.A. County Dist. Atty.—"In recent years we have been unduly tolerant toward those in our midst who perpetrate illegal and often violent acts... who seem to think they are their own Supreme Court."

MRS. DANIEL SOLOMON, S.F. prize-winning graphics designer—"Work is work... any design work is masochistic drudgery. The joy of creation lasts two seconds."

DR. S. I. HAYAKAWA, S.F. State pres., on student disorders—"What we are really dealing with is intellectually arrogant upper middle class radicals who simply want their own way at once, and by force if necessary."

WE THE PEOPLE

The comments in this column are not necessarily the views of the editors and publishers of The Farm Tribune.

June 5th, 1970

To The Editor:

Dear Sir:

Like the thousands of unsuccessful candidates that time and favor have passed by since time began, I find myself reflecting on an episode that can only be described as a 'guest appearance on the Bill and Ray Show.'

I do wish to thank all those who did help and I'm sure we still share the same thoughts that our county offices deserve quality and qualified people to fill them. Competition has always improved the contestants, and I have no doubt this fact will be reflected in our winners.

We have a County that is on the threshold of some tremendous economic advances, and the support of all of us will help our leaders do their very best.

Sincerely,
S/ Howard K. Nielsen

Max H. Greene Is Assigned To Mid-Cal. Exchange

VISALIA — Newly assigned to the position as assistant to the manager of the Mid-California Citrus Exchange in Visalia is Max H. Greene, who brings with him a wealth of experience with the Sunkist Growers organization.

Greene's latest assignment with Sunkist was in the Los Angeles district sales office. Prior

NEW OFFICERS (actually all former officers were reelected) were installed Tuesday evening for the Porterville City of Hope Auxiliary by Mel Heininger, representing the City of Hope National Medical Center at Duarte. to that he served three years as a district exchange manager at Yuma. Other experience included country sales in Orange County; the Redlands and Riverside areas and the San Joaquin Valley. He spent nine years in San Diego as manager of the Sunkist district office.

The Mid-Cal executive sees a continuing striving for quality as the answer to marketing problems posed by a growing volume of fresh oranges. Greene believes improvements in packing house operations designed by Sunkist engineers will help the industry achieve both better quality and greater efficiency.

Now residing in Visalia, Greene selects the move to the valley as the high point of his career.

RED LIGHT? PULL TO RIGHT, STOP AND WAIT

PORTERVILLE — "When you see a red light behind you, move to the right of the roadway immediately, using your signal lamps. Unless the emergency vehicle continues past you, stop at the curb or in the freeway parking strip on the right side of and parallel to the roadway."

This advice, from Lieutenant E.J. Heringer of the California Highway Patrol comes directly from the Vehicle Code.

Lieutenant Heringer explained that when a CHP officer makes a red light stop he also controls other traffic to permit the vehicle being stopped to move across the roadway in front of him.

Drivers may avoid panic at the sight of a red light by knowing in advance what to do. Lieutenant Heringer offers this list of "Don'ts."

--Don't wait for the sound of a siren when you see the red light.

--Don't stop in the center divider strip of a freeway or divided highway.

--Don't stop in the moving traffic lanes.

"If an officer indicates to you to stop next to a fire hydrant or in a loading zone, do it," the CHP official advises. "The officer has selected it as the best available safe spot to stop, and it's legal to stop there under his direction."

After stopping, the driver should sit quietly and await the approach of the officer, who has a few things to do, such as unfastening his seat belt, adjusting his lights and radioing his position. The slight delay does not mean he wants the stopped driver to walk back to him.

"Opening the door to the traffic lane is dangerous. Stay in the car unless the officer tells you to get out. To be ready for such emergencies, be sure you always have your vehicle registration and driver's license with you when you drive," Lieutenant Heringer said.

Oranges, grown on approximately 250,000 acres, provide California with its largest income from a single farm crop.

Advisory Council To Plan Pacific Crest Scenic Trail

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin has announced selection of a 30-member advisory council to assist in development and administration of the 2,313-mile Pacific Crest National Scenic trail.

The trail, through the Cascade and Sierra Nevada mountains from Canada to Mexico along the Pacific slope, is one of two designated by Congress in late 1968 to launch the National Trails system for promotion of exploration and enjoyment of the outdoors.

Since the major part of the Pacific Crest trail (more than 1,500 miles) crosses National forests, it is administered by the Secretary of Agriculture through the Department's Forest service.

The other trail, the Appalachian, along the eastern seaboard, is administered by the Department of the Interior.

Among duties for the first Pacific Crest Trail council are consultation on selection of rights-of-way, standards for erection and maintenance of markers along the trail, and administration of the trail.

PASCOE ASSIGNED TO PATROL OFFICE

PORTERVILLE — Officer Walter F. Pascoe has been assigned to the Porterville area office of the California Highway patrol, having served in the Tejon and Baldwin Park substations following graduation from the California Highway Patrol academy in January of 1966. Pascoe, his wife, Edith, and children, Kydaran and Sheri, will reside at Glennville.

$2 Million In Social Security Benefits Per Month

VISALIA — Social security benefits paid to residents of Tulare county totaled $2 million a month as 1969 ended, Donald Chapin, social security district manager, has reported.

A benefit increase, signed into law by President Nixon on December 30, 1969, has since raised the monthly rate of payment by 15 percent for the 26,332 social security beneficiaries in Tulare county, Chapin noted.

Of the social security beneficiaries living in the county, 16,343 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 5,512 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 4,010 are getting benefits as disabled workers, or the dependents of disabled workers.

12-Month Season For Oranges Is Well On The Way

VISALIA — What used to be idle conversation seems to be approaching reality - a 12-month season for oranges in Tulare county.

At least the weekly report from County Agricultural Commissioner Elvin O. Mankins states that some Navel oranges are still being picked, and that Valencia orange harvest is moving slowly.

As for other crops, the Commissioner's report says that barley harvest is gaining momentum and wheat harvest is getting underway, with some fields being baled for hay; corn is making good growth and milo is "doing very well."

As cotton is now beginning to grow, cultivating, irrigating and chopping is in progress; alfalfa is being cut and baled; sugar beets are maturing.

Early plums are being packed; harvest of early peaches is almost complete; some apricots are being picked; grapes are being thinned; walnuts are sizing well and early varieties are being whitewashed.

A few tomatoes are being picked; squash, beans, and cucumbers are being harvested; asparagus is being picked and sent to freezers; bushberries are moving to market.

Livestock is generally in good condition, however lower rangeland is drying fast.

A total of 1,040 sea otters, the greatest number yet observed in California, has been counted in an aerial survey by the state department of fish and game.

Summer Session Enrollment Deadline Near

PORTERVILLE — "Anthropology is the first Porterville College summer class to be closed," according to Lee Clearman, summer session dean, as he urged enrollees to complete registration this week prior to the first day of classes, June 15.

Tuesday, June 16, is the last day to enter a class. The summer session ends on July 24.

Summer classes, says Clearman, are designed for those who wish to accelerate their college program, those who wish to take remedial work which will enable them to succeed in college, and for those persons interested in general education. Classes meet each evening, Monday through Thursday.

Courses offered range from Accounting to Welding, and interested persons may enroll from 8:30 to 4:30 daily and from 6:30-9:30 each evening Monday through Thursday.

ENROLLMENT FOR 1971

BAKERSFIELD — University of California and State Colleges have jointly announced that applications will be accepted beginning November 1, 1970, from undergraduates planning to enter in the Fall of 1971.

UC and the State Colleges agreed on this common date to assist students in formulating their educational plans early and to give them an opportunity to consider alternative enrollment plans if campuses of their first choice were filled.

From Daybell Nursery
By John

This week the weather has again been showing who is boss around these parts. We suppose that after the results of the past two winters no one should be surprised at what happens next. However we no doubt will be because it does such unexpected things. Or we don't remember what kind we were supposed to expect.

In spite of all this you should be preparing yourselves and your garden for summer. It's best that you should go out and survey the garden and see what needs doing most. Then take one area at a time and gradually work your way around. If you try too much at once you may be discouraged so take it in sections.

It's easier if you prepare good wide flower and shrub borders. At least three or four feet wide. This gives the plants room to grow and gives you time to remove the bermuda grass before it grows throughout the borders. It also cuts down on the lawn area that remains to be mowed. While you're working on it a header board or strip of aluminum edging should be installed between the lawn and the border.

Most of all you should enjoy the garden. Don't plant too much and do work in the cool part of the day or else find a shady spot. The garden should be adapted to both you and the weather. If you need help stop by on E St. North of Olive.

The Old Days Yester-Years - San Juan Day

By S. L. Creeks

For some time I have been searching for an answer to a question as to what does San Juan's day, which is June 20th, mean to the Indians of the Reservation east of Porterville. I have asked teachers and others but they come up with no answer.

But to get along with my story of the San Juan day celebration I attended on the Reservation, when I was a small boy. I was very timid and scared of my own shadow after night. On those days kids were much closer to their parents than now-a-days. One had to mind or suffer, a whipping which wasn't very easy to take.

The day before making the 18-mile trip to the Reservation, the brake shoes on the surrey were put in first class shape, the wheels were removed and the axles greased. Mother fried chicken, made a cake or pies plus salad, sandwiches etc. We got up real early in the morning, as it took several hours to make the trip, and our first stop was generally at Bronsel Spring to water our horses at a horse trough that was there.

When we arrived inside the Reservation we stopped at the Indian Agency to register, as a record was kept of who entered the Reservation. We were then told what to do, and especially not to take any booze.

It was a couple of miles on to the Sand Flat where the celebration was held. Many Indian women and men would be fixing up their soft drink and bar-b-que stands, right after lunch the big event took place, which was under the supervision of the Indian Agent, with some Indian help.

One large Indian by the name of Big Jim took care of anyone who consumed too much firewater. On our way to the celebration us kids were cautioned not to get very far away or the Indians would get us and believe me we stayed very close to our folks always.

After lunch was over the program started, which consisted, of a three legged race, sack race, foot races and a tug of war, in which a long rope was used with a ribbon tied in the middle of it. Indian men would get on one end and whites on the other. Two lines were made on the ground then the tug of war started one side trying to pull the other across his line.

Next came the rooster pull where they tied a five-dollar bill on a rooster's foot, then buried the rooster in the sand up to his neck. Cowboys would ride by at full speed trying to grab the rooster's head to pull him out of the sand. Some cowboys would fall from the saddle trying to reach the rooster but in time a lucky cowboy would get the rooster and the five dollar bill. While this event was going on, a rodeo was held a short distance away.

The last event for the day was the war dance performed by the old Indians. The men were togged out with their feather head dress and painted with war paint and danced by the tune of their war drums. Since the old Indians have passed on, they don't celebrate the way they did years ago.

After the last event for the day, everyone hitched up their teams ready for the trip home. When folks left the Reservation it was quite a procession. It was generally around 9:30 at night when we arrived home, tired and dirty. The only light on the buggies was two coal oil lamps. The road ahead was very dark.

"GEORGE M" TO BE PRODUCED AT COLLEGE

PORTERVILLE - One of America's brightest and most exuberant musical comedies, "George M," will go into production next week at Porterville college, with opening set for the evening of July 18.

In addition, the college will produce "a boisterous and magical version" of "The Sleeping Beauty," with the two musicals to run in repertory during the last week in July.

"George M" is based on the story of the rise to fame of George M. Cohan, and includes: "Give My Regards To Broadway," "Mary," "Yankee Doodle Dandy," "Harrigan," "Over There," and "You're A Grand Old Flag," as well as other songs, all written by Cohan.

Auditions for both musicals are set for June 10 and 11, at 7:30 p.m., and June 13, at 2:30 p.m., at the College theater. Director is John Lawson; musical director is John Holden, who has written and will direct "The Sleeping Beauty." Choreographer is Martelle Lawson.

Parts are open for actors who do not sing, as well as for those who do. Scripts are available for those who would like to see them prior to auditions.

Additional information can be obtained by phoning 781-3131, or 784-0421. Persons interested in scenery, costuming, and lighting are also needed.

STUDY TO BE MADE ON TIMBER VALUES

SACRAMENTO - The State Board of Equalization has decided upon a full-scale joint study of the controversial assessments of timber properties.

OFFICERS SEATED AT VANDALIA 4-H FAMILY PICNIC

VANDALIA - New officers of the Vandalia 4-H club were seated, and regular business conducted, at annual family potluck dinner meeting held Sunday at the Porterville State Hospital's Camp Vandalia.

Club members were reminded to write "thank you" letters to buyers of animals at the 4-H and Porterville Fair. The club will donate funds to the Penney Pines conservation project and one acre will be planted in the club's name.

It was announced that the next 4-H Council and Hi 4-H meeting will be held June 9 at Monache High school, and Tulare County Awards night program will be July 17 at Monache High school. Members were reminded that Cal-Expo entries are due June 25.

Highlight of the afternoon was the installation of officers for the year 1970-71 by outgoing president, Pat Bennett: President, Nanci Carter; vice president, Emmy Lu Weldon; secretary, John Bennett; treasurer, Billy Bennett; reporter, Brent Scranton; corresponding secretary, Colette Laux; parliamentarian, Richard Bennett; sergeant-at-arms, Dan Holloway; song leaders, Carla Carter, and Leighann Milford; and recreation leaders, Bruce Carter, John Corkins and Tim Corkins.

A gift of appreciation from the club was presented to Mrs. Wilbert Scranton for her service as local club leader for Vandalia 4-H. The next meeting of the club will be in September.

Presiding at the business session was Outgoing President Pat Bennett; leading the flag salute was Leighann Milford; leading the 4-H pledge was Katherine Homer.

paces, while a "drunk pilot" routine by one of the best such pilots in the business, Roy Sprague, will also be shown.

Scholl is professor of aeronautics at San Bernardino Valley college. He has thousands of hours and many pilot ratings to his credit. He is one of the top aerobatic pilots in the world, having competed in world aerobatic championships in previous years representing the United States.

Volk, when he isn't doing wild gyrations in the sky, is a builder of hot-racing speed boats. He holds many boat-racing titles and also is considered one of the best aerobatic pilots in the business.

Scholl and Volk fly similar DeHaviland Chipmunk aircraft and in their most daring maneuver, one does an inside loop outside while the other does an outside loop inside with canopies of their planes only scant feet apart. They will perform this maneuver during both Saturday and Sunday afternoon air shows at the Porterville Fly-In.

Massey is a professional agricultural pilot and has thousands of hours to his credit in a wide variety of types of flying. His red and silver "Li'l Toot" plane is a miniature that really pops eyes in the aerobatic world.

Among the wide variety of aircraft to be displayed at the Porterville Fly-In this year will be the U.S. Army's Mohawk (AO-L), a seldom-seen reconnaissance plane with twin turbine engines and fantastic performance capabilities.

No Water Pollution From State Hospital

PORTERVILLE - Porterville State hospital has received a clean bill of health indicating that recent allegations of water pollution had no basis of fact, according to Dr. James T. Shelton, medical director.

In a memorandum from Kerry W. Mulligan, chairman of the State Water Resources Control board, to Lucian B. Vandergrift, secretary of the Human Relations agency, Mulligan wrote, "We regret that Porterville State hospital was reported as a pollution problem by the regional board."

A report resulting from a recent inspection by the regional board staff disclosed that an odor nuisance existed in the past from the hospital's waste treatment facilities but this has been corrected through additional elements and improved operation, it is stated.

Investigators recommended that alternative laundry and boiler compounds not containing hexavalent chromium or fluorides be considered as a safeguard against possible groundwater pollution in the distant future.

Another recommendation urged completion of current plans to connect into the City of Porterville's sewage treatment facilities.

Thompson, Linda Woody, Lea Baxter, Sandra Halford, and Edwinna Anthony.

Judging of queen candidates is set for 9 a.m., Saturday, at the Porterville Fair Horse Show arena; basis of judging will be on horsemanship and personality, with final point being sale of special tickets. The queen and her attendants will be announced during the rodeo the evening of June 19.

Chairman of the Porterville Jaycee rodeo committee is Vern Onstine; advertising chairman is Earl Cometta; queen contest chairman is Loron Hodge; Jaycee president is Fred Church.

dealer, hobbyist, homebuilt, antique and experimental planes of all types and sizes, will also be shown.

One of the favorite antique planes to be on display will be exact replica of an old World War I fighter-scout plane, a Sopwith Pup, shown and flown at the Fly-In by co-owners Pat Tomlinson and Don Tyrrell, both of Porterville. The plane even features a genuine LeRhône rotary engine.

Corinne Horst, 19, a Porterville College home economics major, has been chosen queen to rule over the event, and extends a cordial invitation to all pilots and friends of aviation to attend the big two-day general aviation show.

Admission to all of the activity at the Fly-In is $1.00 per person, per day, for those who drive-in and a 50 cents per person for those who fly in.

Members of the Greater Porterville Merchants' committee have Fly-In tickets available in their stores now at a reduced price of 75 cents; merchants are also assisting with arrangement for busses to run between the municipal airport and the city of Porterville - and possibly to the rodeo arena - during the weekend.

With Porterville Jaycees staging their annual Porterville rodeo on June 19-20, overlapping the fly-in, the Jaycees and Pilots will join together in a "western action" fly-in dance at the airport the evening of June 20.

New Deer Tagging Provisions Set By State Fish And Game Commission

SACRAMENTO — A new deer tagging provision, and a four-week northern deer season, are among the highlights of the 1970-71 hunting regulations adopted by the California Fish and Game commission.

The new tagging regulations requires that any deer taken in a one-deer district must be tagged with both the "A" and "B" tags. This means a hunter who takes a buck in the early coastal season will not be allowed to take a buck in the inland late season areas.

The Department of Fish and Game, which earlier had proposed a statewide one-buck limit in order to obtain better distribution of hunting pressure, recommended retention on the two-buck coastal limit but with the added provision that all bucks taken in one-deer districts be tagged with both the hunters' tags.

The revised deer seasons, adopted May 29 in Los Angeles as part of the 1970-71 hunting regulations, will be:

Early coastal season - August 1-September 13, limit two bucks forked horn or better.

Humboldt - Del Norte - September 26-October 25, limit two bucks forked horn or better.

Late general season (primarily southern California and the west slope of the Sierra) - September 26-November 8, limit one buck, forked horn or better.

Northern season (including former eastern Sierra and Northwest seasons) - September 26-October 25, limit one buck forked horn or better.

Northeastern season - September 26-October 25, limit one buck with antlers of three points or better.

The early archery deer season will be July 11-26 and the late season for bow hunters will be August 22-September 13, with limits the same as for rifle seasons.

Barb Wire Collectors Meet June 20-21

PORTERVILLE — The California Barbed Wire Collectors association will hold its second annual convention in the form of a two-day barbed wire show at Ojai, June 20 & 21. Location will be the Nordhoff High School cafeteria, Maricopa highway, Ojai. Show hours will be 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday; 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday.

The public is invited to visit the cafeteria during those hours in order to view the many exhibits of barbed wire, fencing tools and other collectors' items which will be on display. CBWCA members will show their collections, as well as man swap-tables for the benefit of beginning collectors. Admission will be free.

CBWCA members will attend a dinner and business meeting which will be held at "The Oaks" restaurant, Ojai, on Saturday evening.

Non-members may exhibit at the Ojai show at a cost of $3 for the first display table, $1 each for additional tables. Two-thirds of the display table space must be devoted to barbed wire and related material. The remaining space may be devoted to other collector's items.

Ellwyn M. Carlson, of Porterville, is corresponding secretary of the state organization; other members in the Porterville area include: Steven Stout, Ben Fike, T.C. Buford, Donald Gill, Ed. Canfield, Delbert Swisher, and Ed. Clark.

THE LAST BLAST AT COLLEGE TONIGHT

PORTERVILLE — Final Porterville College dance of the school year, "The Last Blast," is set for 9:30-12:30, Thursday, June 11, in the student union. Music will be provided by "Underground Heaven." Admission is free to holders of college ASB cards and $1.50 to others; any dress will be considered acceptable; refreshments will be served.

BOB WILEY SAYS THANKS

Sheriff Bob Wiley states that he wants to thank the people of Tulare county for their support and trust as indicated by the recent primary election. "I will continue to devote my efforts toward good law enforcement," Wiley says.

MORRIS HORSES BIG WINNERS AT KING CITY

PORTERVILLE — Entries from the Paul and Eva Morris Quarter Horse ranch were top winners at the recent Salinas Valley fair in King City.

The Morris' had champion stallion and reserve champion mare, and their horses took three firsts, four seconds, two thirds and a fourth in various classes.

directors since 1958. As vice-president, he succeeds to the vacancy created by the death, April 30, of Roy R. McLain, Visalia.

Dungan is a life-long resident of the Exeter district. A graduate of Stanford university, he is both a citrus and deciduous fruit grower. He markets his citrus fruit through the Exeter Citrus association, an affiliate of Mid-California Citrus exchange, which he serves as a director.

Trout farming is becoming another farm-related enterprise.

Jack Dungan Vice President Of Sunkist Growers

LOS ANGELES — A Tulare county grower, J.M. (Jack) Dungan, of Exeter, has been elected vice-president of Sunkist Growers, Inc., citrus marketing cooperative representing more than 8,000 producers in California and Arizona.

Dungan has served as a member of the Sunkist board of

94 Percent Of County Cotton Is Acala SJ-1

BAKERSFIELD — Tulare county cotton growers planted 94 percent of their cotton acreage to the Acala SJ-1 variety, according to a recent variety survey conducted by the USDA's Consumer and Marketing service.

Carl J. Lorenzen, officer-in-charge of the Bakersfield Cotton Classing office, reported that the remaining six percent of the cotton acreage was planted to Acala 4-42.

Growers in Tulare county produced approximately 190,000 bales of cotton last season which was approximately 45,000 bales less than was produced the previous season.

EMILY McCAIN IS AWARDS JUDGE

PORTERVILLE — Mrs. Emily B. McCain, Porterville college professor of English, has been appointed an official judge for the 1970 Achievement Awards program of the National Council of Teachers of English. Regional judging committees are scheduled to evaluate the writing ability and literary awareness of over 7,500 high school seniors who have exhibited excellence in English. Names of the Award winners are sent to all universities and colleges in the United States with a recommendation that they be considered for scholarship assistance.

CANCER SOCIETY OFFICE IS MOVED

VISALIA — Tulare County branch of the American Cancer society, has moved its office to 502 West Mineral King, Visalia. Telephone is unchanged, 734-1391.

TO THE GRADUATES . . .

Our happy congratulations to the many of you who have just completed one of the important steps in Life's race to success.

We also wish to show our appreciation to those members of the teaching staff, and other school personnel. Each has contributed a part. It has taken patience, perseverance and dedication on the part of all to bring such a large, fine class through the years to its graduation.

DON'T CLOWN AROUND

TRAFFIC SIGNS ARE MEANT TO PREVENT ACCIDENTS... BE SURE TO WATCH FOR THEM AND OBEY THEM AT ALL TIMES!

BEHIND THE WHEEL

PLEASE DRIVE CAREFULLY
ACCIDENTS ARE NO
LAUGHING MATTER

FOR OUR CHILDREN'S SAKE:

KEEP OUR STREETS SAFE...

YOU CAN HELP... HERE'S HOW--

2. Watch out for caution signs and adhere strictly to the speed restrictions in these areas.

3. Watch for children darting into the street. In fact watch for children EVERY WHERE and ALL the time.

1. Be sure that your car is mechanically safe. Check brakes, steering, lights, wheel balance and alignment, tires at frequent intervals.

4. Remember: Children are unpredictable. Their safety is YOUR responsibility. When in doubt STOP.
